EMMA:22 April 2000 to 01 January 1970
Euthanasia ever first time I've never ever in my life had to do this. Emma is my last westie of 5.
No my dog should not have gone she was ok till I took her to Birkenhead Veterinary in Livingstone Street. THIS VET HAS KILLED MY DOG. The vet called Cristina said she's Italian. My Emma they took away from me, she and her so called receptionist told me I cannot take my own dog outside if she's alive she would not let me even go over to Birkenhead Park with my alive Emma to spend my last moments, they both was forcing me and rushing me to make decision to give my Emma the death needle. had the consent form on table with pen ontop to sign and already rang Whitley brook to pick up my pet for cremation when she was alive then young receptionist brought in Whitley Brooks cremation and casket card for me to fill in and pick a casket. My gorgeous only pet wasn't even dead, they both threatened me with the RSPCA that if I don't consent to euthanasia and sign the form that they will take further steps. Wow never known this, never had to put any of my pets down said when I rang they was fully booked but then phoned me to say cum in at 5.10 funny no patients in after me. Birkenhead Vetinary killed my dog why was no patients wailing and I was being forced that I have to put my dog to sleep she was ok before she went into the back of the vets surgery out the way of everyone. I 100 million percent sense bad planned malpractice. I am taking this very sad bad act to the highest rank as I have been a gullible victim of a scam. My Emma only been there once before for a wee infection and that vet Cristina says my dog has all kinds wrong not even knowing my dog saying my Emma her quality of life is going only because I told her Emma's age and that emma is doing well and she's strong

I got this handsome fella from the cats protection league in October 2002, well he chose me actually! he was approx. 3yrs old and I was told he'd have to be a house cat as he's deaf. Well I got him home and within a few hours I realised he wasn't deaf. He was a cheeky, mischievous, gentle loving cat who, like most cats, loved his food & bed. He was also a thief, he'd steal jewellery, nuts & bolts, anything shiny really. He was such a character and I miss him so much. RIP my little mate. Thanks to all who were involved in Whisky's final moments and for returning him to me in a beautiful box x

Dexter:01 March 2004 to 20 September 2015

Dexter the border terrier was such a brave rescue boy - we were his third home and he would have been with us 5 years on 30th Oct. He had fought so many health issues without complaining. My husband has long term terminal illness and he became his special buddy - always wanting to lay on top of him when hubby having a poorly day. We hope we gave him 5 happy years of loving, cuddles, walks and holidays to make up for his early years. After all his brave health battles he was taken from us very suddenly with pancreatic cancer. He lay on my husbands lap and I held his wee head and as we gently stroked him he passed away peacefully. We collected his remains from the vets today. Rip sweet brave Dexter xx

Thank you Whitley Brook who made my grieving a little easier when I picked my Billy's ashes up in a lovely casket with a certificate and the engraving I requested, I was so worried about his after care.

Holly:10 October 2000 to 23 September 2014

It's been a year since you were taken peacefully from me. I miss you as much now as I did then, my tears still fall, my heart still aches and your collar and lead are still where you left them but life is not the same without you! I know you are at peace and one day we will walk and play together again but until that day I light your candle every night and will always keep you in my heart. Sleep well my faithful daughter!

Love daddy xxx

Dash:28 April 2003 to 14 September 2015

In memory of Dash. He passed away peacefully on 14th September 2015. He was 12 years old. He was our companion and friend. Dash was clever and so human in his behaviour. He was calm, placid and so good natured. He loved his walks, swims and car rides. Although he became older and slower his eyes burned bright until the end. Many thanks to all at Manchester Vet Centre who gave him the best care imaginable. Much missed by Peter, Obi, Elizabeth and all those who knew him. Rest in peace mate. Xxxx

Ben:01 March 2001 to 10 September 2015

In memory of Ben who went to sleep for the last time on 10th of September 2015 at 6.30pm. Miss my old man so much and cant get used to you not being around. xxxxxxxxxxxxxx

Today I pick Ben up from my Vet who's only instruction was that I wanted to bring him home. They sent him to Whitley Brook for cremation and when I got him home today I thought about what kind of casket I was going to get for him. I looked into the bag and pulled out the cardboard box they had put his ashes in and sat down with him on my knee. As I opened that box to look inside I found the most beautiful mahogany coloured box with his name and a flower on the top. Thankyou so much, I cant tell you what it ment and how I felt when I opened it all up to find that. THANKYOU xx

Clyde:05 April 1998 to 10 September 2013

It is now 2 years since I took you to the vet and made the heartbreaking decision to send you to the Rainbow Bridge. I did this because I adored you so much. Although you were poorly, you weren't exactly suffering. I couldn't take the risk of something horrible happening to you so I decided to let you go.

You gave me over 15 years of love, fun and pleasure and I thank you for that from the bottom of my heart. I couldn't have asked for more and anyway, you didn't have it to give. You had a number of things wrong with you and the time had come to say goodbye.

After keeping your ashes for over a year, one evening in March 2015, I felt the time was right to let go of you completely. I took your ashes to the top end of the garden that you loved and there, among the snowdrops and crocuses, I scattered what was left of my darling boy.

I hope you are happy at the Rainbow Bridge with your sister Bonnie and your old friend Jez.

Your little girlfriend, Lily sends lots of love and kisses.

Be happy my precious until we meet again at the Rainbow Bridge.

Your loving Mummy XXX

My Beautiful Boy I held you till the end, your passing broke my heart with a pain and rift that will never heal. I was 21 and you were 6 months old on the first day we met, a meeting that was meant to be. You stole my heart on that very day and my heart will always be part of you. Our life journey together was full of adventures and memories I will forever hold dear, not a single thing I would change apart from the day I lost You. We are from the same soul tribe me and thee and even though you are no longer of the earthly realm, I know you walk beside me still. You will be at the bridge of rainbows and when my time doses on the this world, I can think of no other who I want to guide me there. You and the others who have passed, made me who I am today, you enriched my life and gave me a bond that no other will ever break. A part of me died with you Zan, im lost without you and will only be whole again when I am reunited with you and our souls meet again, you are and were my life Zan and I know I will see you again- Your Heartbroken and devastated Mum xxxxx

Connor, our special boy, our house seems so empty without you. You gave us almost 18 years of joy and affection. We will never forget your special little tricks, the way you'd chase a rolled up piece of paper and bring it back to us to throw for you again, the way you sat by "Daddy" Bill and pulled on his sleeve till he'd tum round and tickle you under the chin again. You were always so kind to your "adopted sister" Heidi, and we know you missed her when it was time for her to go where you have gone. Praying you two are now together again. Rest in Peace, dear little man. Love from Mummy & Daddy xxx

Missing our little bundle of joy terribly,
If Tears Could Build A Stairwell
If tears could build a stairwell
and memories were a lane,
We'd would walk right up to Heaven and bring you home again.
No farewell words were spoken,
no time to say good-bye.
You were gone before we knew it,
and only God knows why.
Our hearts still ache with sadness
and secret tears still flow.
What it means to lose you
no one will ever know.

Goodbye Miss Bossy Boots We miss you so much; the sound of your nails clipping across the floor, the jingle of your collar tag, the way you were at the door before us whenever we picked up the car keys. You could always tell us what you wanted and, for such a little dog, you have left an enormous hole in our lives.

Maurice, there will only ever be one like you.
We can shed tears that you are gone, or we can smile because you have lived.
We can close our eyes and pray that you will come back, or open our eyes and see all that you have left.
Our hearts can be empty because we can't see you, or can be full of the love that we shared.
We can turn our backs on tomorrow and live yesterday, or we can be happy tomorrow because of yesterday.
We can remember you and only that your gone, or we can cherish your memory and let it live on.
We can cry and close our minds, be empty and turn our backs, or we can do what you would want: smile, open our eyes, love and go on.
Forever in our hearts: Love Mum, Dad, Melanie, Neil, Isabella & Ethan.

Whizz: to 23 September 2014
To Whizz,
We all loved you so much. You were so beautiful in life and you will make a beautiful angel. You will always be in our hearts and your memory will live forever in our minds.
When you came to us, you were given away as your previous owner couldn't look after you. She loved you dearly and it was hard for her to give you away... don't forget that. You were so shy but you soon came out of your shell and you became the lovely house cat we adored.
When you did go out in the back garden, you loved it and you lay in the sun... where you will be now it is always sunny for you.
A special place will always be in my heart for you. You died so suddenly and it was shock. At least you are not in pain now. You will be doing all the things you loved to do in life but in a better place.
We love Whizz. Forever and Always.

Missy:05 June 2001 to 13 September 2014
Hey Missy! It's been just over a week since you left me for Rainbow Bridge and my home and life feel so empty without you. I keep expecting to hear you on the stairs, or to bark at the cats from the balcony, or to be hanging around expectantly when I'm preparing my meals! I haven't been out for a walk since you went because you're not there. I have your ashes on the mantelpiece, waiting for that special day when I can take you on our woodland walk and lay you down amongst the ferns and the trees and where you can forever smell the woodland and hear the birds singing and the squirrels chattering. You brought such joy to my life, my constant companion, my furry person and best friend. I will never forget you, will always love you and your footprints are firmly embedded in my heart. xxxx love you always Missy - your mummy xxxx

Molly:28 November 2003 to 16 September 2014
To my precious little girl, Molly
You have meant the word to me and brought so much happiness and love, changing my life for the better. I was always so proud to have rescued you and to be your mummy xx You were such a big part of my everyday life - which will now never be the same again. I loved all of our special walks together and all our cuddles and kisses. I'm devastated that it was your time to go, if I could I would have kept you forever. I will miss not seeing you every morning and every night, my beautiful angel girl xx I miss your silly dances - and your brother Jack misses you too. It was so very difficult saying bye to you today, I didn't want to leave you. I miss you so very much, we weren't ready for you to go. Love you so much sweetheart, you were loved so very much by all of us and you always will be. My darling little girl and my best friend xxx LOVE YOU xxxx

GOD'S GARDEN
Author Unknown
God looked around His garden
And found an empty place.
He then looked upon the earth
And saw your tired face.
He put His arm around you
And lifted you to rest.
God's garden must be beautiful
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering
He knew you were in pain.
He knew that you would never
Get well on earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb.
So He closed your eyelids
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone.
For part of us went with you
The day God called you Home.

RIP TELYN x

Telyn:01 April 1989 to 20 June 2014
My beautiful little mare Telyn - you gave me 9 fantastic years which I will never ever forget. We did so much together, and you were an old girlie when I had you at 16. The horsey holidays, four hours around Presteigne, getting lost in the mist on top of the Long Mynd. Your favourite ride through the woods at Nesscliffe. All in your little horsebox Pootle. The many Veteran In Hand classes you won, the judges always saying how pretty you were and what lovely eyes you had. So many people were drawn to you, both in public and at the shows. You just had a presence about you. The other horses and ponies that loved you so much, that you kept company in the field or on rides, they all loved you. Your soft velvet nose that I loved to nuzzle, you blowing softly in my ear, and falling asleep on my shoulder, snoring loudly! That beautiful shiny black coat that you loved having brushed. So many memories, so many good times. I don't know what I will do without you Telyn, but I hope that over the Rainbow Bidge you are running free and having a blast. RIP my sweet little girl, love you always, Mum xxx

God looked around his Garden and found an empty place
He then looked down upon his earth and saw your loving face
He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest
His Garden must be beautiful, he always takes the best
As the days come and go and the world moves on,
We know you're still here, you'll never be gone
On the night the Angel came and took your hand,
We cried as you left for an unknown land,
But Heaven rejoiced as you came into sight,
For your soul was a diamond, shining so bright.
Sleep well our little Angel

Whisky Towey:14 August 2003 to 30 March 2014
To my baby Whisky you have and will always be my "little baby puppy". We are never ever going to let go of each other. In my heart I will always be buying you your little treats every time I go to the shops, so you will always be having your pedigree "jummy" bones, cheesy bites & lots of other little treats & toys. Our house was always so empty whenever you went off to have your doggy make-over so now we have little baby Lilly to love & to spoil as much as we did you. I know you approve and are watching over him. So glad to have you back home again where you belong xxxxxxx

He has all your little ways, I'm sure you come to us at times because he sits and barks at nothing for ages. Well I like to think so anyway, it makes me feel better wool thinking its you. You are missed so much wooly. We think & talk about you everyday. And when I'm walking Rudi now I tell him all about your favourite places in the park. I wish you could be here with us I really do. Love you always baby, mummy daddy & James. Xxxxx

Oh Charlie, you beautiful perfect Westie, what a gaping hole you have left in our home. Miss you so much matey. Not having you round my feet every moment of the day is so difficult. Coming home to an empty house is especially hard. We all miss our trips to the parks, but especially our trips to the seaside. You went through so much over the years and bounced back every time. But you were looking so tired. The day you went to sleep was the most heartbreaking day of our lives and has left us all completely devastated. But you more than deserve your rest old boy. So, until we meet again, because that I am sure of, take care my dear friend. Lots of Love, Dad, Mum, Claire and Sue x x x x x x x

Toby lling:08 January 2000 to 08 February 2014
Toby our beautiful little bichon, we didn't want to say goodbye, too little time to prepare and such a shock to us all. Its hard to imagine that you seemed in the best of health only a few weeks ago. You must have been quietly suffering and the fighter that you were, came on regardless and battled on, until in the end without your brother by your side it obviously became too hard to bear. Ambrose was your soul mate, we brought you both together at only 6 months old, you were never apart. Losing him was so very hard on us all and now 3 weeks later you join him and walk the rainbow bridge together and now we have to come to terms with losing you too. We had 14 good years with you both and so many wonderful memories that will never ever fade. If only we'd had more time, and you were still here with us, the house is so empty without you, the only comfort we have is knowing you will both be together now with your health, hearing and sight restored. Our little hopes for peace, be at peace now and rest assured you will never ever be forgotten, we have cried so many tears and there will be many more, our hearts are truly broken.
Forever in our thoughts we love you little man, till we meet again, your beloved mummy and daddy, Lewis, Elijah and Caelan xxxxx

Smokey:05 June 2005 to 03 February 2014
God looked around his garden,
And found an empty place,
He then looked down upon the earth,
And saw your tired face.
He put his arms around you,
And lifted you to rest,
God's garden must be beautiful,
He always takes the best.
He knew that you were suffering,
He knew you were in pain,
He knew that you would never
Get well on this earth again.
He saw the road was getting rough,
And the hills were hard to climb,
So he closed your weary eyelids,
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
It broke our hearts to lose you,
But you didn't go alone,
For part of us went with you,
The day God called you home
Smokey, gone too soon & so unexpected. Loved & missed always. Run free our beautiful boy xxx

Milo:04 July 2009 to 29 January 2014
It takes me back to brighter years, to happier sunlit days
and to precious moments that will be with us always.
And these fond recollections are treasured in the heart to bring us always close to those from whom we had to part.
There is a bridge of memories from earth to Heaven above...
It keeps our dear ones near us
It's the bridge that we call love.
Love you forever Milo.... Miss you boy.
From your big brother .
Ethan xxxxx xxxxx

Milo:04 July 2009 to 29 January 2014
They say memories are golden well maybe that is true,
I never wanted memories,
I only wanted you.
A million times I needed you,
a million times I cried.
If love alone could have saved you you never would have died.
In life I loved you dearly,
in death I love you still!
In my heart you hold a place
no one could ever fill.
If tears could build a stairway
and heartache make a lane,
I'd walk the path to heaven
and bring you back again.
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same,
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.
I love you Milo... I will miss you always...
From your big sister
Abbey Rose xxxxx xxxxx

Milo:04 July 2009 to 29 January 2014
If tears could build a stairway
And memories were a lane
We would walk right up to Heaven
And bring you back again
No farewell words were spoken
No time to say goodbye
You were gone before we knew it
And only God knows why
Our hearts still ache in sadness
And secret tears still flow
What it meant to lose you
No one will ever know
But now we know you want us
To mourn for you no more
To remember all the happy times
Life still has much in store
Since you'll never be forgotten
We pledge to you today
A hallowed place within our hearts
Is where you'll always stay
Lots of love always Milo....
Dylan your big brother Xxxx

Milo:04 July 2009 to 29 January 2014

I lost my special friend today the kind you can't replace,
And looking at his empty bed I can still see his face.

I see the endless struggle behind his sparkling eyes.
My tired, fragile friend I had to bid goodbye.

I know he's in a special place our lord has for such friends, where meadows, fields and flowers help make him strong and whole again.

I remember how he'd run to me and have his bichon blitz and how his ears would perk right up when he heard me call his name.

But as those precious years flew by your illness was unkind, we still had so much more to do.

Easter stands in my mind as you would always find the eggs, the kids would have their baskets full and you would be there to beg.

Then there under the Christmas tree your gifts all wrapped up, you clawing and ripping the paper up.

You did your guard dog duty well each time the door bell rang, strangers surely couldn't see my gentle friend behind that bark.

You started sleeping next to me was this your special due, because you felt the end was near I only wish I knew.

Milo was my special dog I know he gave his best, but as I looked deep into his eyes I knew it was time for him to rest.

It will truly be a struggle I don't know how I'll face each day, I have to let him go... I know, but in my heart he'll always stay.

I know he's watching over me he'll be with me when I cry, so with one more kiss upon his face I told my baby goodbye.

With all the love in the world and more
My little fluff... I will miss you beyond compare.

With love Always
Mummy and Daddy xxxxxxxx

BONNIE:24 February 2000 to 14 October 2013
Our beautiful Bonnie
Words cannot describe how we feel over the loss of our soul mate Bonnie we are beyond broken hearted. She was so much a part of our lives such a lovely loyal gentle affectionate companion with a lovely temperament. a larger than life in your face character who had to be part of everything that was going on. who was loved by everyone around her. The loss of Bonnie has left a big hole in the lives of all of us especially our grandson Lewis who is devastated at the loss of his best friend Bonnie who he loved so much as she did him. and our lovely caring friends Suzanne and Brian who have looked after Bonnie many times throughout her wonderful life. and who she thought the world of. We know as time goes on we will remember all the wonderful times we have had with Bonnie and the happiness she brought to ours and everybody else's lives around her, at the moment things are a bit raw and are finding it difficult to come to terms with the loss of our beautiful Bonnie, we are all devastated.
Bonnie you are in our thoughts every minute of the day and we will never get over losing you. but we have years of happy memories to look back on. remember and treasure
You're broken hearted Mum and Dad xxx
Below is a little poem given to us by Suzanne and Brian our dear thoughtful friends and Bonnies too who have gone through the same experience of losing their lovely dog Santon many years ago This is of great comfort and helping us get through this heartbreaking empty time, and hope it may give comfort to others in our situation.
IF IT SHOULD BE I GROW FRAIL AND WEAK
AND PAIN SHOULD WAKE ME FROM MY SLEEP
THEN YOU MUST DO WHAT MUST BE DONE
FOR THIS LAST BATTLE CAN'T BE WON
YOU WILL BE SAD. I UNDERSTAND
DONT LET YOUR GRIEF THEN STAY YOUR HAND
FOR THIS DAY MORE THAN ALL THE REST
YOUR LOVE AND FRIENDSHIP STAND THE TEST
WEVE HAD SO MANY HAPPY YEARS
WHAT IS TO COME WILL HOLD NO FEARS
YOU'LL NOT WANT ME TO SUFFER. SO
WHEN THE TIME COMES. PLEASE LET ME GO
I KNOW IN TIME YOU WILL SEE
IT IS A KINDNESS YOU DO FOR ME
ALTHOUGH MY TAIL IT'S LAST HAS WAVED
FROM PAIN AND SUFFERING I'VE BEEN SAVED
DO NOT GRIEVE THAT IT SHOULD BE YOU
WHO HAS TO DECIDE THIS THING TO DO
WEVE BEEN SO CLOSE WE THREE. THESE YEARS
DONT LET YOUR HEART HOLD ANY TEARS.

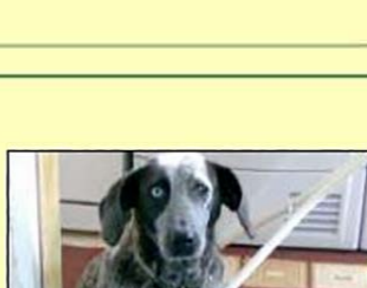

Daisy:20 May 2001 to 01 October 2013

Jake:01 January 2001 to 15 August 2013
I can't believe you have sadly been taken from us Jake. Who am I going to snuggle up on the couch with now? And beg for scraps with? We were a team you and me and I am lost without you, walks and BBQ's are just not the same without you.
I miss you terribly and am moping about without you. Keep the doggie kennel in the sky warm for me, because I will be with you tearing up those fluffy white clouds one day.
Lots of snuggles, snorts, and doggie kisses from your broken hearted mate. Jess xxxox <3 xxxox

Jake:01 January 2001 to 15 August 2013

They say memories are golden, well maybe that is true. We never wanted memories, we only wanted you.
A million times we will need you, a million times we will cry If love alone could have saved you, you never would have died.
In life we loved you dearly. In death we love you still. In our hearts you hold a place no other could ever fill.
If tears could build a stairway and heartache make a lane, we'd walk the path to heaven and bring you home again. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same.
But as god calls us one by one, the chain will link again.
Good night god bless my lil soldier. I truly am broken hearted you are no longer with us. Run free my lil old man and be free from pain and suffering.
All my love Mum xxxxxxxxxxxx <3 xxxxxxxxxxxx

Jake:01 January 2001 to 15 August 2013

Sunlight streams through a window pane onto a spot on the floor, then I remember. It's where you used to lie, but now you are no more.
Our feet walk down a hall of carpet and muted echoes sound, then I remember it's where your paws would joyously pound.
A voice is heard along the road, and up beyond the hill, then I can't remember it can't be yours, your golden voice is still, but I'll take that vacant spot of floor and empty muted hall and lay them with the absent voice and unused dish along the wall.
I'll wrap these treasured memories in a blanket of my love and keep them for my best friend until we meet above.
Good night god bless my little mate, I am broken hearted you are no longer with us xxxxx all my love Dad xxxxxxxxxxxxxxxxx

Barney:16 September 1998 to 30 July 2013

Mr Barney Boo,

My mate, me and you had a special friendship, we were the youngest and got into lots of mischief together.

We would disappear for hours just walking and walking, you doing your constant figure of 8's and us coming home covered in mud, tired but had a good time.

Most of all I will miss your mischievous side, I will never forget the phantom limp that kept me from going out on date.

You were so much loved by everyone because you were the best dog a family could have.

We all will miss you everyday.
Rest peacefully pal.
Steve

Barney:16 September 1998 to 30 July 2013

To My Beautiful Barney Boo,
Since I first met you when you were 15weeks old and you nearly squashed me in your enthusiasim to sit on my knee. I knew I wanted to be your Mummy!
You were my first baby and you taught me what it is to love someone unconditionally. You were there when we found out we were expecting a little brother for you, you even knew before us as you had taken to lying with your head on my tummy!! You went in to be a fabulous brother, nurse maid & sometimes play thing for Ethan & Ellie.
Barney Boo you have been my baby, my friend, a mischief maker but ultimately you have loved me unconditionally. We have shared so many memories, too many to mention...for those I thank you.

Even at the end you told me what to do... you wanted to go to sleep at home in your own time & you did.

I will Love You Always ...
Mummy xxx

Barney:16 September 1998 to 30 July 2013

To my 'Hahy Obstacke', over so many years we've shared most things together including yogurt pots, ice cream & bivy bags, plus hours of nonsense conversation. You've been good, naughty, mischievous, and adorable... all at once! You've left a huge hole in my heart that I know in time will fill so you'll never be forgotten. I can't thank you enough for being over those years what I had hoped a dog would mean to me. sleep well Boo

All my Love,

DUCHESS:10 May 1998 to 13 May 2013

MY BEST FRIEND - TAKEN SO SUDDENLY.

ODE TO DUCHESS - PASSED AWAY DURING TIME OF PASSENGER'S LOVELY LYRICS
I CRY IN MY HEART EVERYTIME I HEAR THEM... AND CONTINUE TO ASK WHY WAS SHE TAKEN!!

Well you only need the light when it's burning low
Only miss the sun when it starts to snow
Only know you love her when you let her go
Only know you've been high when you're feeling low
Only hate the road when you're missing home
Only know you love her when you let her go
And you let her go

Staring at the bottom of your glass
Hoping one day you'll make a dream last
But dreams come slow and they go so fast
You see her when you close your eyes
Maybe one day you'll understand why
Everything you touch surely dies

But you only need the light when it's burning low
Only miss the sun when it starts to snow
Only know you love her when you let her go
Only know you've been high when you're feeling low
Only hate the road when you're missing home
Only know you love her when you let her go

Staring at the ceiling in the dark
Same old empty feeling in your heart
'Cause love comes slow and it goes so fast
Well you see her when you fall asleep
But never to touch and never to keep
'Cause you loved her too much and you dive too deep

Well you only need the light when it's burning low
Only miss the sun when it starts to snow
Only know you love her when you let her go
Only know you've been high when you're feeling low
Only hate the road when you're missing home
Only know you love her when you let her go
And you let her go
Oh oh oh no
And you let her go
Oh oh oh no
Well you let her go

BYE, BYE DUCHESS - WE ALL LOVE YOU...

My beautiful sweet tempered mare, I cant believe you have gone Rest In Peace my darling Cara, until the day comes when we meet again. And when my time on this earthly realm is done, I will cross the bridge of rainbows and call you by your name. I will watch and wait for you and the herd to greet me and show me our heavenly home. I know I will see you all again one day, but till then my sweetheart enjoy the eternal sun with the friends that went before you, have fun and watch over me till my time to join you all again, has come.

Forever in my heart

Phoebe:16 August 2000 to 04 March 2013

Dearest Phoebe Cat,
Never was there a more loved and adored furry sibling. You made my lovely Dad very happy and gave him a reason to get better in 2004 and to try again more recently. You are much loved, and missed, as is Dad. You were with him in the good times and suffered as he did with the bad.
Thank you for being there for Dad, and for reassuring me he'd always be ok so long as he had his furry partner in crime.
You can be together now eternally xxx

Max :30 October 1997 to 01 March 2013

By our sides for 15 years our perfect dog was so special. You wasn't a dog to us but another member of our family. We have the best memories of our Max, jumping out of the top window when in alone so you could go up to the shops and see our mum at work, the kids by ours knocking and asking if you could play out then you coming in half an hour later with pink hair clips and glitter in your fur. My status about you being asleep now on facebook got over 100 likes mate, everybody around ours remembers and loves you, most people grew up with you around as you loved to go out on adventures on your own. In your old age you made us carry you up and down the stairs and woke me up early every morning for a wee. I was tired and would moan about getting up but I would do absolutely anything for you to wake me up through the night and early in the morning. We keep thinking and wishing we hear your feet on the floor, we are all so heartbroken Max, I wake up every morning and forget, I don't think I will ever get used to it, you have been my best mate since I was 5 years old. We will never forget you gorgeous. Bring some happiness to my nan and Richie up there now. Until we meet again our perfect dog xxx

Trudy (right) a sensitive soul, down and loyal, adoring friend and family member.

I've made many choices in life, and keeping you was undoubtedly one of my best. You have accompanied me through the last decade of my life and your impact on three generations of my family will stay with us always.

Moving forward without you is a struggle, and I know your doggie Mum, Katie, (left) is wondering where her baby has gone.

Rest in peace little lady. I'll see you in the next life.

Loving you always... Mum xxx

I am honoured to have been a part of your life since the day you came into mine on the 24th August 2007 as a 3 year old straight out of racing. As the years come and go my tears will still flow, god only knows how i miss you so.

I love you Buddy as much today as i will always and forever. You will never be forgotten.

Just this side of heaven is a place called Rainbow Bridge

When an animal dies who has been especially close to someone here, that pet goes to Rainbow Bridge. There are meadows and hills for all of our special friends so they can run and play together. There is plenty of food, water and sunshine, and our friends are warm and comfortable.

All the animals who had been ill and old are restored to health and vigor; those who were hurt or maimed are made whole and strong again, just as we remember them in our dreams of days and times gone by. The animals are happy and content, except for one small thing, they each miss someone very special to them, who had to be left behind.

They all run and play together, but the day comes when one suddenly stops and looks into the distance. His bright eyes are intent, his eager body quivers. Suddenly he begins to run from the group, flying over the green grass, his legs carrying him faster and faster.

You have been spotted, and when you and your special friend finally meet, you cling together in joyous reunion, never to be parted again. The happy kisses rain upon your face; your hands again caress the beloved head, and you look once more into the trusting eyes of your pet, so long gone from your life but never absent from your heart.

We love you so very much Mtchy, the house is so empty. Foever in my heart baby boy, my best friend...

Mummy Daddy and Cameron xxx

Thor:16 February 2007 to 04 January 2013

Thank you Ther for giving us the most beautiful memories and being our best friend.

You were plagued by illness throughout your short life but that never stopped you bouncing around, "We will miss your negotiation" for treats, the joy of watching you eat, walks, watching tv with you next to us on the sofa and big cuddles.

Your absence has left such a big hole in our lives and one that can never be filled.

Sleep tight my "snuggle bunny".

Lots of love mum, dad and the cats x

CHARLIE: to 14 December 2012

Our beloved companion and friend. We were privileged to have been able to love you, even for such a short time. You were only 2 years old when your liver began to fail. We fought to try and make you better, by hand feeding you and nursing you for many weeks, until your tiny little body just gave out. We are devastated that we won't see your little golden face, curled up, sleeping in your bed, or feel you creeping up on to my pillow each night, where you used to curl up to sleep next to me, purring. You were the most loving, good-natured cat in the world. Your little kitty companion, Bella keeps looking for you out of the window, watching the fence where you used to make your way home, wondering where you are. We are all lost without you. You brought so much joy, love and laughter into our lives. We are broken-hearted that we will never see you again. You were an angel on earth and will now be an angel in heaven, where you can play with Georgie. Sleep peacefully my beautiful boy. We love you and you will be in our hearts forever. Broken-hearted, Mummy and Aimee xxxxxxxx

"Annie"
Ten years ago a poorly little orphaned foal came into my life. A little red head called Annie.
Throughout your life, we have fought to keep you fit. Last year you fell really poorly, but you pulled though, the cause undiagnosed.

A year on, you fall ill again, a tumor close to your spine. I promised, I would never see you suffer. To see you fall and unable to stand was just too much.

Now you rest, no pain.

Never forgotten my "Chestnut Witch, Annie!"

You maybe gone, but you will never be forgotten. You gave me the confidence I have today and I thank you for being a part of my life. I will always Love You!

You are always loved little boy, we will never ever forget about you no matter what. You are our little angel and we hope you love to gallop in heaven's gardens. We all miss your tiny little face. Although you were our stallion you were our little baby boy. xxxx

"With a whinny and neigh,
The time has come to say
Goodbye"
Said the horse.
"Of course I shall miss you and the things we used to do"
Said the horse.
"But don't forget me
I'll be as happy as can be
In your mind for evermore"
Said the horse.
"So with a whinny and neigh
The time has come to say,
Goodbye"

And when you see a bright star
Glimming in the sky from afar
Remember your horse up above
And feel that love
Once again.
A pony is forever
Is forever
Is forever

Duke of Aynsley:22 September 1995 to 16 December 2011

In the memory of my beloved Duke, I treasure every second with you.

Your eyes showed me how much pain you were in.
The light that was there was beginning to dim,
The love that you gave was there till the end.
So my darling your life, your soul, to heaven I send,
Goodbye for now my angel. X
Think of me when you gallop and run so free again,
No pain in your body, just love in your heart.
It won't be forever, that we will be apart.
See you at the Rainbow Bridge my precious boy.....
All my love always

Bess: to 06 October 2011

A Black & Tan cross breed dog, who was thrown out from her previous home & left on the streets March 2007.

I took her in she was a companion for my blind cat always placid, loving, loyal & protective.

She was taken on lots of walks, stayed in Wales, loved swimming, in the Wirral & to lots of parks & places around Hale. She had a loving home unfortunately cancer ended her life.

It was pressure to spend the last 4 1/2 years walking this earth with her.
